Indian Merchants' Chamber (IMC)

Indian Merchants' Chamber (IMC) is a premier Chamber of trade, commerce and industry in India. Set up in 1907, IMC has over 5000 companies as members, which include over 1600 members of the Ladies' Wing and 300 members of the Young Leaders' Forum. Its membership encompasses members from a cross section of public and private Ltd. companies, trade services, professionals, proprietorship and partnership firms as well as the upper echelon of industrial houses. Today, its brand speaks of its strong association with 225 trade and industry associations.

IMC, an ISO 9001 organization, has gradually emerged itself as one of the major international chambers from India. It has signed 109 MoUs with different Chambers of Commerce in 45 countries all over the globe. IMC has been conferred with a rare honour of having Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi, as its Honorary Member.
